Dear Jack:

As a customer I would like you to know that I am most impressed with Paul Morissette. His knowledge and willingness to help is extremely refreshing. He has assisted me with some simple design ideas and always helped me find a way to meet my delivery. Please make him aware of the fact that his efforts are greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Jack,

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your employees help in shipping our base rings during the last two weeks. Without your employees going far above the realm of servicing us as a customer, we would never have met our customers demand for early and immediate shipments.

I have found in dealing with Gilchrist Metal Fabrication, that you are more than eager to go out of your way to meet our needs, usually without monetary compensation. These actions are greatly appreciated by both myself and the engineering department, who usually are reacting to our customers demands.

Again, thank you for all that you and your company have done and please wish everyone a happy holiday.

Sincerely

Dear Mr. Verbicky,

Please offer our thanks to your employees Jerry Miranda and John Marconi, as well as Robert Weaver and his fellow employees of Gilchrist Metal Fabrication for the extraordinary service they provided to Lockheed Martin WDL in the recent shipment of base ring angles and associated parts to our overseas installation.

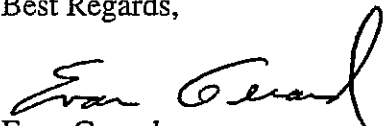

Although there was no contractual requirement for Chemfab to deliver parts before 15 December, both Mr. Marconi and Mr. Miranda cheerfully assisted in achieving early delivery when LMWDL's customer needed it. In spite of several date changes, they were able to support our objective of meeting a government airplane departure date.

At the 11th hour, after the truck was already on its way to pick up the large crate, Mr. Marconi and Mr. Miranda were able to get the heavy shipment re-crated into a smaller crate when it was discovered the original crate was too large for the truck.

We appreciate the positive, can-do attitude.

You should be proud of your people and their performance.

Best Regards,

Evan Gerard

Dear Walter,

Thank you for your hospitality during the in-depth tour of your facility.
The congenial manner in which you answered our questions was greatly appreciated.

Thanks to you, our impression of your company is a fine one.

In the future, schedules permitting, Gilchrist would be the type of quality fabricator
Thermal Dynamics would want for a Beta Test of our equipment.

Sincerely,

Gentlemen,

I am writing to thank you for your work this past weekend on the WMAU pole. I understand that all of you made great personal sacrifices to get this pole done and I want to let you know that all of us here at Dielectric appreciate your efforts. Because of your extra work will once again meet the requirements of our customer.

I have enclosed a small token of our appreciation for your efforts. If it were not for suppliers like Gilchrist and their employees Dielectric would not be as successful as we are today.

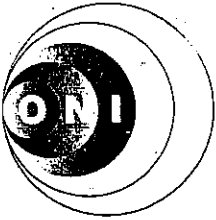

Again, thank you.

Sincerely,

Dear Paul:

This letter is meant to show our appreciation to you as a key and valued supplier and/or consultant to ONI Inc. We greatly value our relationship with you and Gilchrest Metal Fabricating Company and are very thankful for your understanding and support during the recent months. The enclosed check should bring our account current and in the future we expect to remit payments on a timely basis.

We believe that our ability to recently complete such a successful round of financing is evidence to our superior technology and effectiveness in meeting an important market need. We are excited to be entering this new phase in the diffusion of new and exciting medical systems and are equally as excited about having you on board with us.

Thank you again for your loyalty and support and we look forward to a continued long and prosperous relationship.

Very truly yours,
